DEQ to check county dump sites

BY ED LEPOMA

The state Department of Environmental Quality will be asked to check out alleged illegal dump sites operating in Hancock County.

The county's Solid Waste District made the unanimous decision to call in DEQ inspectors following a report yesterday from consultant Bill Johnson. Johnson had been asked by the District to check out reports made at the District's last meeting that there were five to six illegal dumping sites.

The charges were levied by Curtis Johnson, (no kin to Bill Johnson), president of Mississippi Pumping Co., who owns a DEQ permitted rubbish site off Fire Tower Road.

Bill Johnson and the Echo made a windshield survey last week of DEQ-permitted mining operations taking place mainly in pits located off several areas of the Kim-Picayune Road in the vast buffer zone surrounding the Stennis Space Center. Mining operations were checked out traveling west all the way to the road's intersection with Hwy. 607. Permits for mining were posted and clearly visible on the outside of only two of five locations observed.

"Obviously, there's some dumping going on," said Johnson, "but whether it's legal or il-

Attorney General ruling sought on Bay High booster activities

BY RICHARD MEEK

The state Attorney General will determine if the Bay St. Louis-Waveland School Board acted illegally concerning booster club activities at Bay High.

However, board attorney Ronnie Artigues Jr. said even if the board's actions were illegal, he does not anticipate any punitive damages being levied against either the district or any of the current or previous board members since the money raised eventually made its way back to the school.

Sources close to the booster club said at the core of the issue is the booster's club practice of selling season passes to all Bay High athletic activities. The school used to sell those passes, but for the past several years, only the football booster club has sold them.

The money would first filter through the booster club, before eventually being contributed back to the school. Although the money raised was to fund all sports, two-thirds of the funds went to the football program, sources said.

Artigues said the illegality may be that the paper trail led through the booster club first, then to the school.

"I don't believe it is legal," he said, "but I'm not certain."

A source said the issue arose and became heated recently when Bay High Athletic Director and girls basketball coach Debbie Triplett reportedly went to a booster club meeting in an attempt to secure a more equitable distribution of the funds.

The issue carried over to the board meeting on Monday, where board members discussed the matter during a one-hour, 43-minute executive session.

After the executive session, the board authorized Artigues to seek an AG opinion on not only the booster club activities, but other fund raisers.

One group that may be affected is the ROTC, which staffs the concession stand at Tiger Stadium and keeps the proceeds to help fund the program.

Artigues said it is possible that may also be illegal. If so, the ROTC may have to find alternate fund-raisers.

Although the activities are on shaky legal ground, Artigues said there will be no immediate change any of the procedures currently in place. He said there is no timetable as to when the AG's office would answer his request.

However, he quickly pointed out that if the AG determined the practices violate state law, he would recommend to the board that those practices be stopped immediately.

Additionally, Artigues said malicious intent would have to Pay raises proposed in new county budget

(See related story, page 3A)

BY ED LEPOMA

Pay raises for all county workers, a much needed juvenile detention facility and massive road repairs are included in Hancock County's proposed budget coming up for public hearing next Tuesday.

Supervisors also intend to fund the first phase of a county marina off Bayou Caddy, a ball field in Bayside Park and will increase some fundings to non-government agencies, such as the county's shelter for abused and neglected children.

The public is invited to give input at the hearing, scheduled at the Board of Supervisors Room in the Courthouse beginning at 10 a.m. Sept. 2.

The $27.5 million budget represents a 41 percent increase over the $19.1 million spent to operate county government last year, but it is swollen by a $6 million bond issue that will be floated to finance road improvements and the detention facility.

If supervisors elect not to issue the bonds, the proposed budget would amount to $21.4 million representing an 11 percent increase from previous year's spending.

Actually, because of increased revenues from recent reappraisal of county property, the total millage is reduced by 1.46 mills, and a debt service levy of 2.4 mills will finance the mammoth road repair program over the next 10 to 12 years.

However, most homeowners won't see a reduction in taxes due to reappraisal, and because county voters last May approved an increase in millage to finance a new $10 million middle school and other improvements in the school district.

Under the proposed budget, full-time county workers will get a 50 cents per hour pay raise, and part-time employees 25 cents per hour. The raises will cost between $180,000 and $200,000 a year.

Hope Haven, which originally requested county support of $65,000 for the coming year, will get $40,000. Appropriations for the Gulf Coast Mental Health Center for the coming year remain the same at $100,000; at $10,000 per year for Coastal Family Health Center, Gulf Coast Women's Center and Mississippi Burn Center.

This year, supervisors raised their allocation from $5,000 to $7,500 for the Family Child Center; from $6,400 to $7,500 to the American Red Cross; raised funding for the Community Action Agency from $12,500 to $15,000; and maintained the level of funding at $3,000 for the Historical Society.

Funding for the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce remained the same at $30,000 a year, but the county's new Tourism and Development Bureau's allocation was raised from the

Big tax sale

Edward Murtagh Jr., Hancock County tax collector/assessor, reports there were some 150 registered bidders at the tax sale this week, which should conclude by Thursday. Murtagh said, "This is the most interest I have ever witnessed at the tax sale, which usually takes 2½ days, but this one looks like it will run into four days. There are a lot of over bids, and this adds to the time the sales take," Murtagh said. (Echo staff photo by Ellis C. Cuevas)

Pass in the black; pay raises proposed

BY ED LEPOMA

Mayor Billy McDonald says Pass Christian is once again operating in the black, and he has proposed a four percent pay raise in this year's budget for elected officials and city workers.

A public hearing on the proposed budget is scheduled at City Hall for 6 p.m. Monday, Sept. 8, and the budget is expected to be approved at a meeting of the mayor and Board of Aldermen on Sept. 15.

The $6.86 million proposed budget for the new fiscal year, which begins Oct. 1, also will provide funds to hire three new firefighters, continue improvements to the Municipal Harbor and for repairing the city's east and west water towers. The proposed budget is a 6.3 percent increase over last year's spending.

McDonald recalled when he took office two years ago the city was deeply in debt, and under the watchful eye of the state auditor.

"I'm happy to report, we're in much better shape," McDonald said. He said City Comptroller Tammy DeLorenzo expects the city will end the fiscal year Sept. 30 with a surplus of $545,000, and the city could end next year with $587,000 in the bank.

The budget actually calls for a tax cut of 2.7 percent, but those who own homes in the $50,000 range won't actually see a savings of $7 a year.

That's because voters in May approved a 30 percent increase in millage for school district improvements, which will result in a tax increase of $54 per year for homeowners in the $50,000 range.

The pay raises is the third in two years for the city's work force of 87 full-time employees, but the first salary hike since 1992 for elected officials. The pay raise for employees would cost the city $75,232 to implement.

Under the proposed budget, McDonald's salary would increase $4,800 a year from the present $38,500 to $43,300. Salary of the five aldermen would go from the present $500 a month to $700 a month.

McDonald said it will also be necessary to raise water and sewerage rates by 6.5 percent to keep up with major increases levied this year by the Harrison County Wastewater and Solid Waste District.

Garbage fees would increase $1.75 a month to $11.50 a month, and a customer who uses an average 5,000 gallons of water a month would see his water and sewer bill jump $1.35 per month from $20.90 to $22.25.

McDonald said the city plans to repaint and repair the city's two water towers by floating a three percent loan with the state for $400,000, which will be paid back over a 10-year period.

Harbor improvements, which have been going on for more than a year, would also continue, financed mainly by Tidelands Funds, but the mayor said he will ask also ask aldermen to raise rates for boat slips and utilities, as well as the harbor's commercial tenants.

He said those rates are still being debated.

"We're trying to work out something that will give a break to our local and in-state users, and charge a higher fee to those coming in from out of state," said McDonald.

Supers comment on bond issue

District 2 Supervisor Rocky Pullman says $5 million of a proposed $6 million bond issue won't be enough to improve or pave all roads in Hancock County.

Pullman said an Echo story last Sunday implied that all roads would be blacktopped.

"It's a start, and we have to start somewhere," said Pullman. "But, this county has to go forward. We either have to repair them or lose them."

And, County Attorney Gerald Gex defended the previous Board of Supervisors.

He said the Echo story implied that the previous Board did nothing to ensure that reappraisal mandated by the state every 10 years took place.

"Before they went out of office, the previous board appropriated $500,000 to begin the mapping and re-appraisal process in 1994," said Gex.

The incoming board allocated another $200,000 when they took office in 1996.

"This can't be done overnight," said Gex. "The reappraisal has taken three years to accomplish."

District 1 Supervisor Jeep Ladner said he realizes recent reappraisal "is going to be a burden to a few people."

"But, this county has got to go forward," said Ladner.

Highway contract awarded

BY ED LEPOMA

Boh Brothers Construction Company of New Orleans is the apparent low bidder on the contract to straighten out the dangerous curb at Henderson Point and build a new elevated bridge.

The Mississippi Department of Transportation let the contract Wednesday for a total $10,678,000, a spokesman confirmed in MDT's Jackson office. The work is expected to be completed in April in the year 2000.

Another $5 million was spent acquiring the 59-unit Days Inn motel in the path of the realignment. It has already been razed, and there were 33 other landowners in the path of the roadway who had to be compensated.

"CUEVAS' QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

This is the big Labor Day weekend with many happenings going on in the area.

First there is the big Waveland Civic Association's kids fishing rodeo, festival and fireworks display.

The kids fishing rodeo will be Saturday and Sunday, which is free for ages 5-14 from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. both days. The rodeo headquarters is the soccer field at Coleman and Waveland avenues where the festival will be held.

In conjunction with the rodeo and festival, the Hancock County BASSMASTERS will also sponsor a kids fishing cast, flip and pitch competition on Sat. and Sun. at 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and 4 to 7 p.m. for ages 7-10 and 11-14.

The finale for the Waveland Civic Association will be a fireworks display at Coleman Avenue and Beach Boulevard at 8:30 p.m.

Good luck to all fishermen. By the way, Waveland Mayor John Mason reports fishing will be free on the Garfield Ladner Memorial Pier on Saturday and Sunday for the rodeo fishermen.

Another big event begins Sunday night through Monday evening, and that is the annual Jerry Lewis Telethon.

This Waveland Civic Association-sponsored event has as its veteran chairman Louis Smolensky, and once again Casino Magic Bay St. Louis will provide space to the local telethon.

Louis and Keith Mitchell have been busy getting things set for the telethon and once again will be seeking the help for the general public.

WLOX-TV will carry the telethon from 10:30 p.m. Sunday night to 1:30 a.m. Monday and Labor Day from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m.

During those hours there will be people standing by 463-4097 to take pledges for the telethon.

Good luck, Louis, and I hope a record number will participate in the Muscular Dystrophy Telethon.

There will be a 9 a.m. flag raising in honor of Labor Day at the Bay Flag Memorial on Saturday morning.

The flag raising is sponsored by the Bay Flag Memorial and will have participation from the American Legion Post No. 139, Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 3253, Marine Corps League, Bay High JROTC, Boy Scouts and the general public.

Bay Flag Memorial chairman, Gene Schloegel, encourages all concerned citizens to attend.

The Hancock County Humane Society will offer on Friday and Saturday a limited number of certificates for rabies inoculations for the truly needy animals of Hancock County.

The certificates will be available at the society's Flea Market, Highway 90 at Drinkwater.

Thyla Rogers, society president emphasized that the certificates are for people who truly cannot afford to get their animals inoculated.

Hancock High's Hawks open the Hancock County football season with a home game against Poplarville Friday, August 29.

The game begins at 7:30 p.m. in Hawk Stadium.

Head coach Rocky Gaudin's Hawks who are pre-season contenders for the District 4-A title, will have Poplarville out trying shoot Hancock down as the season opens.

Hancock needs a good show of fan support on Friday night, because when you are good, everybody tries to knock you off.

Bay High's Tigers will journey to meet the new team on the Coast, Gautier.

It will be Gautier's first home game, their first ever football game, etc., and they may have the momentum going their way, because this will mark a lot of firsts for them.

Bay High has a new coach in David Baughmann, and he and his Tigers could bash Gautier's plans with a victory.

The Rock-a-Chaws of St. Stanislaus also will be out of town when the journey to Greene County.

Stanislaus also has a new coach in Dave Kenson. He is an experienced mentor who has some real experienced assistants.

The Rocks would like to get back into their winning tradition of years ago.

Good luck to the Rock-a-Chaws.

The Pirates of Pass Christian start the season with a new coach, too. Gavin Lott is the new head mentor for the Pirates.

Pass Christian will journey to Richton on Friday night for the season opener.

The Pirates are hungry for a victory after some heartbreaks last season and could open with a victory. Best of Luck to the Pirates.

By the way, your local teams need good fan support Friday and every game of the season.

We hope to see you in the stands.

Coaches, managers, players, cheerleaders, parents and supporters, I wish each and every one of you a safe football season.

YOU'RE FLYING HIGH NOW, BUT YOU'LL BE A LAME DUCK SOON!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Charity should begin at home, not elsewhere

Dear Editor:

Several weeks ago I read where the U.S. Government wanted to send a huge sum of money to Mississippi if our legislature would match it with state money.

This money would be used to help needy AIDS patients buy medicine and pay medical bills.

I have no objection to this. If they are really in need, they should be helped.

But what about cancer patients and those with other fatal illnesses who are desperately in need of financial aid?

If just a small part of U.S. money that has been sent to other countries would be used to help our own, no AIDS or cancer patient would have to do without medication because they have no money to pay for it.

Whatever happened to "charity begins at home?"

Sincerely,
Nina Garcia

What to you call a hero?

To the Editor:

In the last several years there has been a lot of changes in Bay St. Louis, but with so many dynamic projects and industry grabbing the headline there has been a very important thing happening in a very quiet manner of which a lot of people are not aware.

Nobody is looking for credit or glory, but somebody deserves it!

The change I'm referring to is the unprecedented improvement to our youth sports programs.

Youth sport activities are very important for our children (especially in the time we live). When our kids are playing sports they are not only exercising and improving their bodies, but they are learning values, respect for their coaches, achieving to win, self confidence and much, much more.

Their time is occupied with things that help them grow in a very positive way, therefore they are not hanging around with nothing to do and getting in trouble.

The reason we have been able to grow so much so quickly is largely due to the genuine concern and support of two people who care — Mayor Eddie Farve and Les Fillingame. Through these two guys' efforts and with the support of the City Council, Ron Vaney and others with the City of Bay St. Louis, we now have some of the finest facilities and best equipment in our area. One of the things they have accomplished is the new baseball complex with seven lit fields and two new concession stands. They have also helped develop the Scott Dembosky Soccerplex.

The latest challenge they have taken on is to help develop the youth football program by helping to furnish our kids with new and safe equipment.

They have assured us that they will make every effort to provide our kids with a football field of their own for next year. They also help maintain the seminary fields where so many sports are played.

There are 150 football players and cheerleaders. Soccer caters to approximately 350 kids, and, last but not least, there are about 700 baseball players. This is over 1,200 of our children who are benefiting each year thanks to these people.

So what makes a hero? As the father of two boys who play football, soccer and baseball, I would like to thank Mayor Farve, Les Fillingame and the City for what you have done for my kids.

In my book somebody who helps over 1,200 kids is surely a hero!

Gratefully yours,
Ree Elliott

Reader says without okra it is only soup

Dear Editor:

I have read about it in magazines and newspapers and have seen it on TV food network programs.

I am talking about people making what they call gumbo. If they would go to their dictionary and look up the word gumbo they would find that the very definition of the word "gumbo" is okra.

None of these people even mention okra in their recipes.

What they should now understand is that what they are making is just another concoction of some kind of soup — because it should be very clear that "without okra it ain't gumbo!"

MHSP makes plans for a safe Labor Holiday

This summer's last holiday is expected to draw many people to state parks and recreational resorts for fireworks, picnics and good times. The Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol is making plans to help motorists have a safe holiday.

"Because Labor Day is the final major holiday of the summer, we will have extra radar and road block details throughout the state looking for various traffic violations, unsafe vehicles, impaired drivers, felons and any other illegal activity," said Col. Tom Ward, MHSP director.

"We are asking the public to join us in our efforts to have a safe holiday." According to statistics, 89 percent of traffic fatalities occur in rural areas where the population is less than 5,000.

Troopers and the Air Operations Division of the MHSP will join enforcement efforts to detect and deter drivers who are driving under the influence, speeding, or driving reckless, along with stranded motorists.

To aid in the speed detection, airplane silhouettes are painted on many state and federal highways by the state Department of Transportation.

Major traffic arteries throughout the state will have additional troopers assigned to work "call back" details. This is a federally funded program that pays troopers to work these details when they would ordinarily be off duty.

The Traveling Criminal Apprehension officers will be utilized in making drug interdiction stops; locating fugitives, illegal aliens, missing and exploited children, stolen automobiles and heavy equipment.

Lt. Col. Marvin Curtis, MHSP assistant director said, "Drivers with cellular phones who have emergencies should dial *HP (*47) for assistance from the nearest MHSP Troop."

Curtis encourages all motorists to report any accidents or traffic problems, especially drivers who may be intoxicated. Drivers and occupants are encouraged to use seat belts and take other safety precautions while in their vehicles over the holidays.

According to statistics during the 1996 Labor Day observance, five people were killed in motor vehicle accidents. Troopers arrested 213 drivers under the influence of alcohol and drugs with a total of 5,591 citations issued.

The Labor Holiday officially begins at 6 p.m. Friday, Aug. 29 and ends at midnight Monday, Sept. 1.

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE COLLECTION OF USER CHARGES FROM RESIDENTS AND PROPERTY OWNERS WITHIN THE DIAMONDHEAD FIRE PROTECTION AND SOLID WASTE DISTRICT BE IT ORDAINED BY THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF THE DIAMONDHEAD FIRE PROTECTION AND SOLID WASTE DISTRICT AS FOLLOWS:
WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of the Diamondhead Fire Protection and Solid Waste District is charged by its enabling legislation, Miss. Code Ann. Section 19-5-151 et seq. (1972 and Supp. 1988) with the power, active by and through the Board of Commissioners of such District as its governing authority, to fix, maintain and collect rates and charges for services rendered by or through the facilities of the District;

SECTION I — USER CHARGE
1.1 User charge shall be the charge levied on all owners of property within the District including, but not limited to, persons, firms, corporations, associations or governmental entities that are provided fire protection services or solid waste disposal.

USM staffer appointed to National Prison Council

A University of Southern Mississippi staffer has been chosen to serve on the National Prison Education Advisory Council.

Cliff Rudder, a Hattiesburg native, is the coordinator of independent study for USM's Department of Continuing Education.

The National Prison Education Project is a cooperative effort of the Pittsburgh Leadership Foundation, Prison Fellowship, Geneva College, and faculty members from more than 40 accredited undergraduate and graduate academic institutions.

As part of the project, Rudder has been chosen to serve on an advisory council of 70 representatives in extension education from universities across the nation.

The council now being formed will develop a national strategy for education in United States prisons. Rudder, 54, is currently the only Mississippi representative on the project.

"If prisoners are educated, when they leave prison they can get out of the environment that sent them there," said Rudder, who has worked for USM Continuing Education for 16 years. He has served as coordinator for independent or correspondence study for the past five years.

The council will be a "shirt-sleeve" operation, oriented to solving major and difficult problems related to providing quality education to prisoners.

The group will meet as a body twice a year — also communicating by phone, letter and electronic mail.

With the help of funding, prisoners will be able to receive educational courses by correspondence through video, textbook or possibly computer.

Mississippi now has about 10 prisoners taking college courses by correspondence, Rudder said. The prison project would provide more opportunities for prisoners in Mississippi to work towards a college education, he said.

Department of Food Services will sponsor its first Family Scramble Golf Tournament Saturday, July 19, at Van Hook Golf Course.

Kim Busche, manager of USM's Unique Catering and the tournament committee, said the tournament is intended as a day of fun for anyone in the family.

"Teams can consist of any family combination — even some adopted ones if necessary," Busche said.

Proceeds from the event benefit the Alfreddy Cook Scholarship, administered by the USM Foundation, which is presented annually to a hotel-restaurant-tourism major at USM.

Cook worked in Food Services for 27 years prior to his death Jan. 16, 1992. Cook was cafeteria manager at USM at the time of his death.

Tea times begin July 19 at 1 p.m. The tournament includes three flights, with participation determined by the age of the youngest player on a two-person team.

The field is limited to 50 two-person teams. Players from age 7-11 received two free mulligans; those 12 and up may purchase up to four mulligans for $5 each.

Trophies will be awarded to first, second and third-place finishers in each flight. Prizes will also be awarded in lag-nappe game categories like closest to the hole, longest drive, etc.

An awards ceremony cookout follows the golf tournament for all participants and sponsors.

The deadline to register is July 16.

For information or to register, call Busche or Anita Karaker at (601) 266-5552 or Van Hook Golf Course at (601) 264-1872.

Labor Day safety emphasized

Extending a Labor Day vacation until "the last minute" could have tragic consequences, according to the Mississippi Division of Public Safety Planning.

"Striving to have as much vacation time as possible can lead to excessive motor vehicle speed or other dangerous roadway actions in returning home," noted Ron Sennett, Public Safety Planning's interim executive director.

In line with the division's "Campaign Safe and Sober" to help save lives and prevent injuries on Mississippi roadways, Sennett offered the following suggestions:

— Allow sufficient time to drive within speed limits in reaching and returning from Labor Day weekend destinations.

— Be sure that all occupants of motor vehicles are using safety belts or child protective devices such as safety seats. In a crash, these devices can make the difference between life and death or between minor and permanent injuries.

— In vehicles equipped with passenger-side air bags, be sure that all children and small adults ride in the back seat. Even in vehicles not equipped with air bags, the safest place for children is in the back seat.

— If alcoholic beverages are included in Labor Day vacations or celebrations, be sure that any person who will be driving does not consume these beverages on the day he or she will be operating a motor vehicle.

A motor vehicle driven by an impaired driver can kill or seriously injure occupants of his or her vehicle or others on the roadway. For the drunken driver, it also can result in a loss of driving privileges, a hefty fine, possible jail time and a sharp increase in insurance premiums or even a cancelled insurance policy.

— Try to avoid driving when sleepy, but, if you're not able to get plenty of rest before taking control of a motor vehicle, never push yourself to "get just a few more miles in" as you try to stay awake. If you're sleepy, make frequent stops in well-lighted areas and take short naps in a vehicle or stop at a restaurant for a cup of coffee or soft drink.

— Try to anticipate the actions of other motorists. Even the safest of drivers can be involved in crashes caused by others.

"Being careless while trying to save minutes can lead to many years of sorrow," Sennett noted. "Have fun over the Labor Day weekend, but be sure that you're safe and sober."

SUPPORT A NEW LIBRARY IN KILN!

Did You Know ... the Board of Supervisors have not yet funded this project, although ...

1. Hancock County is one of the fastest growing counties in the state. Population predictions estimate that population in Hancock County will double in the next few years, with 56% of that north of I-10.
2. Library use is at an all-time high.
3. Children had to be turned away for lack of space at the Kiln Library during the summer reading program.
4. A new 10,000 square foot library building includes a community meeting room.
5. The Library Foundation has purchased the property for the new library.
6. A construction grant application has been filed and, without county funding, important grant money could be lost.
7. The project is endorsed by the Hancock County Chamber, the Farm Bureau, the North Hancock County Business & Professional Association, the Library Foundation and the Kiln Advisory Board.

WE ENCOURAGE THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS TO INCLUDE THIS PROJECT IN THE BUDGET BEING CONSIDERED SEPTEMBER 2 AND CONTINUE THE LIBRARY'S PRESENT 2.4 MILLS OF OPERATING FUNDS.

USM sets economic development course

A one-week intensive workshop in the fundamentals of economic development is planned at the University of Southern Mississippi Sept. 21-26.

"The course focuses on the unique needs of the five-state area centering on Mississippi," said Dr. Ronald Swager, course co-director and a USM professor of economic development. "Because much of this region is rural, the course has a rural, small community emphasis, balanced with a contemporary urban perspective."

Swager and co-director Dr. Rhonda Culp have put together a program designed for new economic developers, community leaders active in economic development, economic development allies like bankers, public utility personnel, etc., and economic and community development professionals desiring continuing educational opportunities.

The program, in its fifth year, is a joint effort between USM's Graduate Program in Economic Development, the Community Planning and Development Program and Continuing Education.

It is accredited by the American Economic Development Council. Participants who successfully complete this course qualify for admissions to the Economic Development Institute at the University of Oklahoma or Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis.

Accrediting sponsors include the Mississippi Department of Economic and Community Development, the Mississippi Economic Development Council, the Southeast Mississippi Economic Development Network and the Area Development Partnership of Forrest County.

Other sponsors include Cajun Electric Power Cooperative Inc., Entergy Corp., and Mississippi Power Co.

Pre-registration by Sept. 5 includes a course fee of $495. Registration after Sept. 5 includes a $50 late fee. Early registration is encouraged because space is limited.

A limited number of scholarships are available. Participants may earn two or three semester hours of undergraduate or graduate credit if additional requirements are met.

For information, contact Swager, Culp or Betty Blackledge at (601) 266-4729. Registration information is also available through USM's Department of Continuing Education, Box 5055, Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5055, phone (601) 266-4186.

House intern

Mara Saccoccia, of Pass Christian, worked as a page in the House of Representatives in Washington D.C. office this summer. Saccoccia is a senior at Coast Episcopal High School where she is an honor roll student, on the girls varsity basketball team and editor of the school yearbook. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Phil Saccoccia of Pass Christian. She is pictured with Congressman Taylor on the steps of the United States Capitol.

Pets face additional dangers during summer

Though thoughts are turning to fall activities, some of the hottest days remain. Outdoor pets can still suffer from exposure to high temperatures, according to a Mississippi State University veterinarian.

Dr. Roger Wilbur, associate clinical professor of veterinary medicine, says that pets can suffer heat stroke without adequate protection. He suggests that using common sense, such as making sure your pet has access to shade, can help prevent most of the risks.

Wilbur has these additional tips for helping your pet beat the heat:

Change water regularly. In excessive heat, change your pet's water two or three times a day. Also, the animal may need to be wet with a hose occasionally to cool off. Some people even fill children's wading pools with water to provide a place for the animal to splash in and cool off.

Watch for sunburn. In addition to heat stroke, the sun offers another potential danger to your pet — sunburn. Wilbur suggests protecting hairless exposed areas like the tip of the nose with sunscreen and find the animal some shade. Chronic exposure to the sun can result in burns and possibly skin cancer for a pet.

Make it a cool ride. Never leave a pet in an automobile when stopping from traveling. Also, don't allow a pet to ride in the back of a pickup during the heat of the day. Act quickly if a pet is overheated.

If you notice an animal panting excessively or unable to rise, it may be suffering from heat stroke. Wilbur suggests running cold tap water over a pet to cool it, then immediately calling a veterinarian.

55 Alive course offered

The Pass Christian Police Department and the Steve Sauer Insurance Agency are jointly sponsoring the AARP 55 Alive mature drivers training course Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 24 and 25 at the Pass Christian Public Library, located behind City Hall. Class will start at 8:30 a.m. each day.

The course, developed by the AARP to help drivers 50 and older improve their driving skills and prevent accidents, will be taught in two four-hour sessions. The course consists of classroom lectures and discussions only. A reduction in auto insurance premiums is granted by most insurance companies.

Cost is $8, payable by check to AARP when registering. To register or for information, call the police department at 452-3303.

present $18,000 to $25,000 a year.

Increased funding was also recommended for the Waveland Animal Shelter, from $33,000 last year to $45,900 this year.

In budget workshops, County Administrator, Tim Kellar recommended a funding level of $64,200, based on statistics kept by the shelter that shows 64.2 percent of the animals impounded are coming from the county.

However, Kellar said, it was discovered that the county was also picking up the $18,300 paid in salary for Waveland's Animal Control Officer, so that amount was deleted from the recommended appropriation, and the salary becomes Waveland's responsibility this year, Kellar said.

Supervisors also listened to a plea from District 1 Supervisor Jeep Ladner on the need for a ballpark for the children in Bay-side Park. They recommended setting aside a total $20,000 to purchase and begin construction on the facility. They also raised capital funding to improve other ballfields and recreation facilities from $98,700 spent this year to $131,900 next year.

Another $21,000 is recommended to purchase additional land for camping at McLeod Water Park and to make improvements to park areas.

Also set aside was $155,000 for the county's Horseshow and Livestock Arena. With the allocation and approval of a business plan to operate the park, supervisors are hoping to shake loose $500,000 in state funding already approved for the facility.

Funds had already been allocated for the county marina in last year's budget, but never spent while the county waited for final design plans and U.S. Corps of Engineers approval for dredging the site off Pleasure Street. A total $960,000 in Tidelands monies is available, along with $250,000 plus interest escrowed when the county's Bayou Caddy Marina was sold to accommodate the Jubilee Casino. More Tidelands money is due the county in the coming year to help fund the second phase of construction.

Before supervisors embark on road improvements, Kellar said he wanted the public to know that there will be no increase in personnel in the Roads Department.

"It's been tried and tried in other counties before, and the road crews just can't do the grass cutting and other things they have to do and pave roads, too," said Kellar.

Kellar said plans are to prioritize the paving and road improvements planned throughout the county and let projects out to public bid. "And, each will have a starting date and a completion date," he said.

The supervisor's intent to fund the Juvenile Detention Facility is another project that has been kept in abeyance for years. Besides the $1 million in bond funds, the county has a state grant of $112,000 that has been escrowed and now amounts to $116,500.

The funding decision indicates that supervisors intend to go along with consultants and build a 10-cell facility attached to the rear of the county courthouse rather than a larger facility somewhere else that could have also housed juvenile detainees for the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Sites

legal, it's hard to tell simply by observation from the street."

The sites are private property, Johnson explained to the Echo, and people could be arrested for trespassing.

Johnson pointed out the District has no Environmental Enforcement Officer, and suggested that DEQ officials stationed at Ocean Springs be called in to investigate the allegations.

From the road check, there was a concentration of tree stumps, limbs and rip rap piled up outside one mining pit, and at another, some garbage bags were clearly visible on the rim of the mining pit.

The garbage bags might well have been dumped by an individual, Johnson explained. The mining sites are fenced, but there is no 24-hour security around the pits that would prevent anyone from dumping, he said.

Another site was checked out off Bayou LaCroix Road, but operations are well out of sight from the road, and it was hard to observe anything taking place except mining activity. Just past the site, a number of automobile tires were dumped by the roadside.

Throughout the buffer zone, discarded mattresses, old appliances and other debris were dumped along roadways, but the county has been aware for years that individuals are illegally dumping in the buffer area.

After a further check by the Echo, the DEQ furnished a printout, which is updated monthly, listing 18 operators of mining pits in Hancock County. Fill dirt, sand, gravel and sandy clay are among products being mined.

However, a spokesman cautioned that the mining operators can also get special permits, usually from DEQ's Office of Pollution Control, to fill in pits at their site with various materials for a temporary period.

The mining operator must spell out in an application what types of materials they will be accepting temporarily and for how long of a period.

be proven against the board for punitive damages to be assessed.

In another matter, Artigues said the district has reached agreement with Casino Magic on the sale of 10 acres near the high school. He said the district will pay $55,000 for the property, which will be used to construct a new middle school.

The school is being funded through a $9 million bond issue voters approved in the spring. Bond attorney Lucien Bourgeois of Jackson told the board on Monday he expects the bonds to be issued at a rate of 5-5 1/2 percent.

Artigues did not rule out the possibility of purchasing additional property at the site.

School district seeking people with disabilities

The Hancock County School District is participating in an ongoing state effort to locate and evaluate children from birth through age 21 who have disabilities and who are not enrolled in school.

The school districts provide services for the following disabilities: speech/language, specific learning disabled, educationally disabled, visually impaired, hearing impaired, physically disabled, multi-handicapped, emotionally disabled and developmentally delayed.

Early identification of children in need of special education services is most important to each child.

Furthermore, this information gathered from contacts with parents and other agencies will be used to help determine present and future program needs. This will aid in progress toward a goal of providing a free and appropriate public education to all disabled children in the Hancock County School District.

Information that could identify the disabled individual is protected by the school district in accordance with the Family Rights and Privacy Act and EHAB. Parents also have the right to inspect information about a child and challenge its accuracy.

Persons with disabled children who are 21 years old or younger, are encouraged to contact the Hancock County Child Find coordinator, Barbara Franklin. Her address is 6069 Cuevas Town Rd., Pass Christian, MS 39571, and her telephone number is 255-6626 or 255-0376. Franklin will assist parents in having their children evaluated and placed in, or referred to appropriate programs.

Labor Day telethon to air this weekend

WLOX-TV will again air the Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy Labor Day Telethon. The MDA telethon will kick off Sunday, Aug. 31 at 10:30 p.m. and run until 6 p.m. Monday, Sept. 1. (There will be one-hour morning newscast from 6-7 a.m.).

Karen Abernathy is the MDA spokesman, and WLOX on-air talents will take part in the local cut-ins. Jerry Lewis will host the national segment from Hollywood and will be presenting some of the biggest names in the entertainment industry, including performances from seven Broadway musicals and the Irish musical show "Riverdance."

Library to purchase land for Kiln site

BY ED LEPOMA

Directors of Hancock County's Library Foundation voted Wednesday to approve purchase of land off Highway 603 for the proposed new Kiln Library.

The purchase price is still being negotiated, but a spokesperson for the library system said the site contains 12.2 acres and is located one-half mile north of the present Kiln Library.

Foundation President Anita Lamb said, "The Library Foundation is excited about the opportunity to purchase this property for the new Kiln Library. We will continue to work with the community, the library board and the county officials to make this project a reality."

The library system has already applied for a $400,000 state grant to begin construction on the library, and supervisors have promised to provide matching monies if the application is approved.

The proposed 10,000-square foot building would almost double the size of the present library, and the design also includes a large activity room, which could be used for community events.

WCA Fishing Rodeo set

2B-THE SEA COAST ECHO-THURSDAY, AUGUST 28, 1997

Bob Harmon Football Forecast

NFL Forecast Sunday and Monday, Aug. 31-Sept. 1

*Buffalo, 26-Minnesota, 20
(Sunday) The Vikings have beaten the Bills in five of their seven matchups, most recently 21-17 in 1994. Buffalo, though, thrives in home openers: The Bills have won six of seven in the '90s.

*Carolina, 29-Washington, 19
In the two years since the Redskins met the Panthers for the first time and won 20-17, Washington has stepped up its game, but Carolina's rise has been nothing short of spectacular.

*Cincinnati, 21-Arizona, 16
First-year coach Vince Tobin led the Cardinals to seven wins in their last 11 games in '96, while new coach Bruce Coslet's Bengals were even hotter, winning seven of their last nine.

*Denver, 28-Kansas City, 21
With three first-half John Elway TD passes and 499 total yards, the Broncos ended a three-game losing skid to the Chiefs last year with a 34-7 rout, their biggest margin ever over K.C.

*Detroit, 17-Atlanta, 13
Bobby Ross now coaches the Lions and Dan Reeves the Falcons, but will they make a difference? Detroit jumped to a 28-0 lead over Atlanta in Week Six of '96, then held on to win 28-24.

Indianapolis, 31-Miami, 23
The Colts beat the Dolphins for the fourth time in a row, 10-6, in their first AFC East battle last year, then lost big in Miami, 37-13. The Dolphins almost never lose a home opener.

Jacksonville, 24-Baltimore, 17
No team may have memories of an intraconference series in '96 than the Ravens, who led the Jaguars late twice and let them come back to win twice, 30-27 and 28-25 in overtime.

*New England, 27-San Diego, 18
Two more of the NFL's 11 new head coaches face off, Pete Carroll of the Patriots and Kevin Gilbride of the Chargers. Last year N. E. won its eighth in a row over S.D., a 45-7 drubbing.

N.Y. Jets, 14-Seattle, 10
Speaking of new coaches, the Jets' Bill Parcells, who has worked magic before in New York, faces the challenge of a lifetime. The Jets have won four of their last five against Seattle.

Philadelphia, 20-N.Y. Giants, 13
Speaking of new coaches with challenges, there's the Giants' Jim Fassel, who debuts against a team that's won four in a row in this series. In '96 the Eagles beat N.Y. 19-10 and 24-0.

*Pittsburgh, 30-Dallas, 20
No new coaches here, although anything can happen with the gun-toting Barry Switzer. The Steelers should get revenge for their last meeting with Dallas, a 27-17 loss in Super Bowl XXX.

*St. Louis, 21-New Orleans 19
The Rams beat the Saints twice last year, 26-10 in N.O. and 14-13 in St. Louis. The series is sure to be more interesting with Dick Vermeil and Mike Ditka taking charge of the teams.

San Francisco, 35-Tampa Bay, 16
And what will the 49ers look like with George Seifert gone and Steve Mariucci taking his place? Probably not much different from the team that's won nine in a row over the Buccaneers.

*Tennessee, 23-Oakland, 21
Liberated from the uninspired crowds of the Houston Astrodome, the Oilers should have a whole new lease on life. They meet new coach Joe Bugel's Raiders for the first time since '94.

*Green Bay, 28-Chicago, 22
(Monday) Sure, the Packers won the Super Bowl, and they've won six in a row from the Bears (37-6 and 28-17 in '96), but Chicago, winner of 12 of its last 13 seasons openers, will keep it close.

College football highlights

It's a banner year for easy home openers, and defending national champion Florida leads the way with what should be a breeze over Southern Mis-issippi. The Gators last dispatched the Golden Eagles 55-17 in 1994. Two predictably one-sided first-time matchups will be Akron's visit to Nebraska and Wyoming's to Ohio State.

Other host teams that will be less than polite to their guests include Syracuse, which hasn't faced North Carolina State since losing to the Wolfpack 27-19 in '78, and Arizona State, which hasn't battled New Mexico State in 34 years. Any upset in the above group would be a huge one.

Alabama and Tennessee, meanwhile, may be tested at home by Houston and Texas Tech, respectively, but should prevail. The Crimson Tide has beaten the Cougars all seven times they've met, but the Volunteers and Red Raiders have matched up only once, in the '73 Gator Bowl, which Texas Tech won 28-19. Tennessee will win by only a touchdown.

Among visiting teams, Virginia Tech will put away Big East rival Rutgers by an even bigger margin than last season's 30-14 win. Two of the best games, however, should be close wins by two visitors, Miami (at Baylor) and UCLA (at Washington State).

The last Hurricanes-Bears contest was in '95, won by Miami 35-14, but this one will be 13 points closer.

And the UCLA Bruins will have a much tougher time of it against the Cougars than they did last November in the friendly confines of the Rose Bowl, when two UCLA sophomores teamed up to punish Washington State. On the way to a 38-14 romp, QB Cade McNown threw three TD passes, tailback Skip Hicks ran for one TD and caught two in a 165-total-yard day, and the Bruins defense left Washington State QB Ryan Leaf battered and bruised. The rematch may swing on an extra point.

Among longstanding rivalries, few equal the history of Utah and Utah State, which meet for the 97th time in Salt Lake City, home of the Utah Utes. Exactly a year ago, at home in Logan, the U-State Aggies pulled off a stunning upset, beating Utah for the first time in nine years, 20-17, as Abu Wilson ran for 148 yards and both State TD's, the game-decider with 7:43 left to play. It was an exciting departure from this largely Utes-dominated series (Utah leads it 65-27-4), but this weekend it looks like things are back to normal.

BETWEEN THE LINES

By Richard Meek

By late last week, the heat index had plummeted below 105 degrees, a sure sign football season was near.

For Hancock High fans, autumn should be a time of celebration as the Hawks wait their way to the post season dance.

Fans of Bay High, St. Stanislaus and Pass Christian will have a glimpse of the future as each school welcomes new coaches.

Hancock is buoyed by the return of Darryl Williams, arguably the Coast's premiere running back. Williams has set a personal goal of 1,500 yards. Barring injury, 1,700 yards is within his reach in coach Rocky Gaudin's run-orientated offensive scheme.

Quarterback Josh Whitfield possesses a better throwing arm than the departed Chad Peterson, but he stands only 5-5, so size is a liability. Look for the Hawks to run a lot of roll-outs, and moving pockets to give Whitfield a better look downfield.

Defensively, the Hawks were decimated by graduation. But Gaudin is a defensive guru, so no matter the talent, the Hawks will always play aggressive, if not outstanding, defense.

The schedule works in the Hawks' favor, also, as Hancock plays six home games, and has virtually no long distance travel. The furthest Hancock travels is to Oak Grove, but the other three away games are at Long Beach, Picayune and St. Stanislaus.

If the Hawks remain healthy, there is no reason they should not contend for the District 7, 4A title. Picayune is the preseason favorite, but at the very least, Hancock should earn a playoff berth as the district runnerup. There will be football in November for the Hawks.

David Baughman's first season at Bay High should be intriguing. The Tigers return 19 of 22 starters, and will feature one of the area's top quarterbacks in Tank Williams. Bay High's skill people are also outstanding, albeit young.

The big question is whether the offensive line will be able to block anyone and give Williams protection and provide running room for running backs B.J. Herrington and Randell Haynes. The line, as well as the rest of the team, took a whipping a year ago while gaining game experience.

Experience, however, can only go so far. The Tigers are still small up front.

Someone to follow is junior lineman Michael Shaw. Shaw reported to camp slimmer and in much better shape than his sophomore year. At 6-3, 230, he has the size to become one of the better linemen in the area.

The Tigers' season will be dictated on how well the team picks up Baughman's offense and attacking defensive schemes. A no-nonsense coach, Baughman should be able to restore credibility to a program that has slipped to one of the district's worst due to recent coaching defections.

Football will be fun again at St. Stanislaus under new coach Dave Kenson. Kenson left retirement and his Florida digs to return to coaching and brings to SSC a new excitement.

Kenson said his offense will be wide open, exciting for the fans and fun for the players. He said he plans to utilize a multiple of formations, including the one-back set.

His biggest riddle to solve is that of quarterback, but the running back position is solidified with Andy Brown. The Rocks gained only 17 total yards in a 14-0 loss to Bay High in a spring scrimmage, but Brown did not play. Quarterback contenders Wes Ehlert and Laurence Coker combined completed only one of seven passes. But working out the kinks is the purpose of preseason practice.

Prep season has arrived

The Rocks have been district doormats for much of this decade, and may be again this year. But Kenson has a successful track record at Catholic schools in Florida, and after a season of evaluation, the coach will be able to determine what changes are necessary to return the Rocks to yesterday's glory.

Grizzled veteran Gavin Lott begins his 23rd fall campaign, his first as Pass Christian's head coach. He inherits a program that was high on apathy, short on direction.

But to his credit, Lott will dress out 35 players, which means he has brought a new enthusiasm to the program.

Enthusiasm aside, the coach needs to bring in new talent to a program that has one win in two years.

Lott's credentials are impressive, and school administrators could not have made a better choice. He is sure to be an asset to the Pirates.

Lott's challenge is the greatest of any of the area coaches, and his success may be longer in materializing.

Renewed life is also being breathed into the New Orleans Saints, arguably the worst, and most mismanaged franchise in all of professional sports.

Mike Ditka has rejuvenated the hopes of long-suffering Saints fans, but what remains unproven is whether the Jurassic coach can bring his Super Bowl shuffle to New Orleans the way he did in Chicago.

Sorry, Saints fans, the suffering will continue. Ditka is a Band-Aid for a wound that requires major surgery. Underneath the hoopla is a coach that washed out in Chicago after the Super Bowl year and Buddy Ryan's departure.

Ditka's defenders say Chicago's inept front office was the coach's undoing. Possibly, but remember, in New Orleans he works under Bill Kuharich. Were the front office guys in Chicago worse?

Three preseason victories were testimony to a team that will play aggressive defense but will be unable to score points. Heath Shuler better enjoy the moment as the Saints' starter because by Halloween, Danny Wuerffel will replace the former Tennessee standout.

Wuerffel is a leader with a commanding presence on the field. He knows how to win, and is prepared for the professional game after earning his undergraduate football degree under the master professor, Florida coach Steve Spurrier.

Ditka's team will be fun for fans of defensive football to watch but the games will be as exciting as watching grass grow. The Saints won't score a lot of points, but neither will the opponents.

A look into the crystal ball shows the Saints finishing with a 6-10 season, and that's only due to a weak schedule that includes cream puffs Chicago, Arizona and St. Louis, twice.

All-Stars knocked out

Justin Gunter of St. Stanislaus collected two hits but it was not enough as Alabama defeated Mississippi 8-4 and knocked the area all-star team out of the 16-year-old Babe Ruth World Series in Springdale Arkansas.

Kyle Foster of Stanislaus added one hit for Mississippi. The win avenged a 3-1 loss by Alabama to Mississippi earlier in the tournament.

Mississippi, which featured five players from St. Stanislaus and one from Hancock High, finished 2-2 in the tournament.

Jr Hawks down Tigers

Chris Goff scored on a two-yard run and caught a 13-yard pass for another score to lead Hancock to a 26-12 victory over Bay High in the junior varsity opener for both teams on Monday night at Hancock.

Jason Burge opened the Hawk scoring with a six-yard pass to David Seal. After Chris Payne's 22-yard touchdown run, Goff scored the first of his two touchdowns.

He later teamed with quarterback Jerry Carco on a 13-yard touchdown pass and Nick Foret added the two-point conversion.

Tony Benton scored on runs of 56 and 29 yards for Bay High.

The Hawks play host to Long Beach next Tuesday; Bay High is at Pearl River.

Sea Wolves re-sign Rohlicek

The Mississippi Sea Wolves professional hockey team has announced that the team's leading scorer from last year is returning for a second season.

Center Jeff Rohlicek was responsible for 34 goals and 56 assists for a total of 90 points last year, leading the expansion club to the first round of the Kelly Cup playoffs.

Rohlicek is a 12-year pro who has also seen action in the National Hockey League, International Hockey League and American Hockey League.

Head Coach Bruce Boudreau said, "With newcomer Forbes MacPherson and Jeff Rohlicek in the fold, we have two of the very finest centers in all the ECHL. In hockey, you try to build strength through the middle and that is what we are able to do with these two solid players."

"Rohlicek is a very smart player on the ice with great touch on the puck. We will be counting on his contributions throughout the season. He brings a lot of experience and talent back to the team."

Jeff Rohlicek said, "My wife and I are very happy to return to the Gulf Coast. We had a great time in Mississippi last season. The team that Bruce is putting together is solid. He is giving us the chance to make a championship run with the talent he has assembled."

The Mississippi Sea Wolves begin their second year of professional hockey when they host the Pensacola Ice Pilots Oct. 16 in the Mississippi Coast Coliseum.

Bow hunter course

The Mississippi Bowhunters Association is presenting a National Bowhunter Education Course on Sept. 9, 11, 16, and 18 at the Fenton Community Center, located on Kiln-Delisle Road.

The instructor is IBEF instructor Antoine Boyd.

Each session is scheduled from 5:45-9 p.m.

Some of the subjects to be covered include hunter rights and responsibilities, wildlife conservation, archery skills, deer anatomy, treestand safety, clothing and game care.

For more information, call Boyd at 255-7126.

Eagles open against national champs

Picked by most preseason magazines and pundits to repeat as champions of Conference USA the Southern Miss Golden Eagles won't have long to wait to find out just how good they are this year.

The Eagles, who closed the 1996 season by dropping two straight games on the road, open the 1997 campaign with consecutive road games, beginning with the season-opener at Florida.

The Gators (ranked No. 1 by ESPN/USA Today and No. 2 by the Associated Press) are the highest ranked team Southern Miss has played since facing then No. 1 Alabama in 1980.

Despite that fact, the Eagles have played at least one team ranked in the top five in each of the last four seasons. Since joining the ranks of Division I football, USM has played teams ranked in the top five 14 times, winning just once. That one victory came at the expense of intra-state rival Ole Miss and the Rebels' heralded quarterback Archie Manning.

Series Info

Southern Miss and Florida have only squared off three times in the past, despite the fact that they have both been playing football for more than 80 seasons. The Gators hold a 3-0 all-time series lead in the series.

All three previous meetings between the two teams have taken place inside the state of Florida.

The 1973 contest was played in Tampa, and the last two were played in Gainesville.

Measurements

Here is a look at how the projected starting lineup for this year's game between Southern Miss and Florida compare physically.

USM	Pos.	UF
6-4, 276	OL/TE	6-3, 290
6-1, 186	RB/WR	6-0, 189
6-2, 271	DL	6-2, 268
6-3, 233	LB	6-2, 227
5-11, 191	DB	5-10, 189

Southern Miss ranks high

The Golden Eagles will be playing their 81st season of college football in 1997. While there are many schools that have been playing for more years, there are few that have played a comparative number of seasons with as many victories as Southern Miss.

Among schools who have been playing collegiate football for fewer than 90 seasons, Southern Miss ranks fifth in total victories with 437.

Only Arizona State (461), UCLA (454), Fresno State (445) and Miami, Fla., (438) have more all-time wins than Southern Miss among schools who have played fewer than 90 seasons.

In fact, the Eagles have racked up more wins in just 80 seasons than 12 current Division I-A schools who have been playing for more than 10 seasons.

Opening in August

For the third time in as many seasons, and for just the fourth time in school history, Southern Miss will open the 1997 football schedule during the month of August.

If history is any indication, the Eagles could be in for a good day when they face defending national champion Florida.

The Golden Eagles have an all-time record of 3-0 in August games — 25-7 over Delta State (8/31/91), 45-13 over Northern Illinois (8/31/95) and 11/7 over Georgia (8/31/96).

Fast starters

Not only have the Golden Eagles done well when opening in August, Southern Miss is traditionally a tough team to beat on opening day, regardless of what month it is. Going into the Florida game the Eagles have won three consecutive opening games and eight of the last nine season openers.

Going back to 1980, Southern Miss has a sparkling record of 14-3 on opening day. The Eagles have an all-time record of 55-25 in season openers, which translates into victory almost 70 percent of the time.

Ole Miss football fans experience new traffic flow for campus games

University of Mississippi football fans will find a change designed to ease the flow of traffic when they start navigating around the Oxford campus this fall to attend games and picnic in the Grove.

There will be no right turn on the Grove Loop when traveling west on University Avenue (toward the Lyceum). Traffic on the Grove Loop — which runs in front of Farley Hall, the Lamar Law Center and the Alumni Center — will flow one way (southeast, making room for one lane of traffic and an unloading zone for the Grove.

Because of the popularity of families and friends tailgating before and after the game, the unloading zone on the University Avenue side of the Grove was not large enough to handle the people, vehicles, tables, chairs and other picnic supplies.

There will be no admittance of vehicles on Fraternity Row between the intersection of Fraternity Row and Poole Drive to the intersection of Fraternity Row and University Avenue, unless a vehicle is in possession of a parking pass.

In reviewing plans for football season, University Police Department Chief Mike Stewart also reminded football fans that one-way traffic flows east on University Avenue (toward downtown Oxford) for 30-45 minutes after games. Signs depicting traffic flow will be posted in parking areas around the stadium to assist people.

University officials have released this Grove policy for game days:

- * The Grove opens at 7 a.m.
- * Only Universitywide events may be held in a reserved place in the Grove. Other space may be claimed on a first-come basis.
- * Occupy only space you need. Be considerate of others.
- * No stakes will be allowed in the Grove.
- * No ropes, ribbons or stakes can be used to reserve an area.

* Please be aware that there are electric and water lines under the ground.

* No solicitation will be allowed in the Grove.

* The use of smaller grills is encouraged. If you have large grills, please place them at the perimeter of the Grove and do not leave them unattended.

* Valuables should not be left unattended.

* Show patience and be courteous and respectful of all security personnel.

* Use garbage bags to help keep the Grove clean.

Those planning to be on campus to enjoy football festivities can find restroom facilities in the following buildings:

* Before, during and after games with security — Lamar Law Center, Lyceum, Alumni House, Student Union and the Yerby Center.

* Buildings locked during games but open before and after with security — Old Chemistry and Faser, Anderson/Carrier, Hume, Peabody, Bryant, Conner and Farley halls.

* Buildings open before games only — "Y" Building and Coulter and Shoemaker halls.

Adopt a Wildcat Night

As a way to introduce the 1997 Pearl River Community College Wildcat football team to the local community, the PRCC coaching staff has lined up more than 30 local families who will adopt a couple of Wildcats for an evening.

The Adopt A Wildcat program is set for today when local residents will pick up their new family additions for a home based get-acquainted dinner.

"We have asked the participants to invite a couple of our players into their homes and return with them to the PRCC cafeteria later that night for dessert and a guest speaker," said PRCC head coach Keith Daniels.

Daniels said each host family will entertain no more than two football players.

Wildcats from Hancock County

Pearl River County boasts two players on the 1997 Pearl River Community College football squad, including, from left, Cory Ray of Waveland (Bay High) and Alan Thompson of Bay St. Louis (Hancock High). Pearl River opens its 1997 season Thursday, Sept. 4 when it hosts the Northeast Tigers in Dobie Holden Stadium.

Lady Tigers dominate in volleyball action

The Bay High School Lady Tiger volleyball team has opened the season by sweeping its first two opponents.

In their first game last week at Hancock High, the junior varsity dominated the Lady Hawks 15-3 and 15-2. In the varsity contest the Lady Tigers won 15-6 and 15-12.

Tuesday night, Bay High hosted Biloxi at the Tiger Dome.

The junior varsity defeated the Lady Indians 15-9 and 15-7.

In the varsity games, the Lady Tigers overcame a 10-3 Biloxi advantage to win the first match 15-10 and followed with a one-sided 15-3 win in the final game.

Bay High will host Long Beach tonight at the Tiger Dome in Bay St. Louis at 6 p.m.

OLA takes 2nd at work meet

The Our Lady Academy cross-country team traveled to St. Martin for their first meet of the year last Saturday. And after only one week of practice, the team finished second out of nine teams.

Ten members of the OLA varsity team participated in the two mile run which had a field of about 90 runners. Leslie Esher led the Crescents with a time of 13:48, good enough for a sixth place overall finish. Melissa McPhail finished 13th with a time of 14:53, followed by teammate Lauren Hansell at 15:02 and 16th position.

Others competing in the event included Amber Lewis, Renee Romain, Katie Stahl, Sarah Johnson, Nina Crain, and 7th graders Brady Bordon and Katy Kerr.

Waveland All-Stars end 1997 season

The Waveland 14-15-year-old All-Stars traveled to Biloxi to face the Ocean Spring All-Stars in their first game. The game came down to the final inning.

The game was exciting with good defensive play and a great pitching duel. However, in the top of the final inning, with two men on, a home run put the Ocean Spring All-Stars on top.

The Waveland All-Stars were unable to overcome the difference. The loss put the team in the loser bracket.

The second game was against the Saucier All-Stars. The Waveland team played a good solid game defensively and a solid pitching game by J. R. Grady. The offensives supplied many hits. The Waveland team won the game.

The third game was against the Hattiesburg All-Stars. The Waveland All-Stars' downfall came on error allowing Hattiesburg to take a commanding lead.

The offensive team was unable to overcome the deficit. The loss knocks the Waveland All-Stars out of the Tournament. Coach E. Reis, L. Sackett Sr. and L. Laurent praise the team for their hustle and fair play throughout the tournament.

The team will finish the season with a buffet and presentation of awards.

Project PRINTS holds graduation

Project PRINTS, the early intervention program of the South Mississippi Regional Center, celebrated its second graduation ceremony Aug. 7 in Biloxi, honoring 48 preschool graduates from Jackson, Harrison and Hancock counties.

The accomplishments in learning, motor development and social skills of each student were reviewed as each graduate was presented with a diploma. The graduation program featured musical tributes from the graduates.

Project PRINTS, an acronym for Partnerships for Responsive Intervention Newborn to School, works with children up to three who are diagnosed with a developmental disability. Students graduate when they transition from the early intervention program to their local school system or Head Start Center.

Administered by the Department of Mental Health, the program provides a wide range of services to infants and children who are experiencing delays and to their families. The goal is to minimize these delays and increase the potential for future development.

Services are provided by 17 staff persons, including certified professional teaching assistants, speech pathologists, parent educators and a social worker.

Occupational and physical therapy may be provided on an as-needed basis.

Services are free of charge and referrals are confidential. Project PRINTS service sites are located in Bay St. Louis, Piquette, Long Beach, Biloxi, Keeler Air Force Base, Woomarket and Gautier.

The administration office of Project PRINTS at 867-1434 will provide information to parents interested in learning about the early intervention program.

Research has shown that reaching children at an early age can have positive results in the child's home and in future school settings.

The Project PRINTS staff works hand in hand with school districts to insure all children are prepared for school and that each child is prepared to achieve his or her potential.

Project PRINTS graduates

Staff member Jennifer Schaefer congratulates Project PRINTS graduates from the Hancock County program Kendall Lick, Jessica Jordan and Luis Ortiz.

Blackwell awarded GE ACE Scholarship

The GE Fund announced that Jennifer Blackwell, a senior at Long Beach High School and the daughter of Jerry and Ruby Blackwell of Long Beach, has been awarded a $500 Award for Career Education (ACE) scholarship. Also, as part of the ACE program, the GE Fund will award a $250 grant to Long Beach High School.

Jerry Blackwell is employed by GE Plastics in Bay St. Louis. The GE Fund established the ACE program in 1987 to provide competitive scholarships to children of GE employees and retirees, who go on to two-year colleges.

Selection is based on the student's academic record, extra-curricular activities and work experience.

The $500 scholarship is used by the student to meet the first year's college expenses. The student also selects a teacher to designate how the $250 grant will be spent by the high school.
